

KANSAS NEGRO HANGED BY MOB

Wichita, Kan., April 20.—An unidentified negro, said to have attacked a young white girl near Mulberry, Kan., was taken from officers by a crowd late yesterday and hanged. A white youth captured with the negro was taken to the county jail at Girard.

Widow Cries for Joy

"I couldn't eat anything but raw eggs and sweet milk and was so weak I could hardly walk across the room. I would have been in my grave today if I hadn't taken May's Wonderful Remedy when I did. When I think now I have suffered with my stomach and how good I feel now I cry for joy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and plays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Injudicious appetites. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

Bedtime Stories For The Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JIMMIE'S SHOWER

JIMMIE WIGGILY, FORTY-THREE, called on his mother, happened to see Uncle Wiggily hopping along. The Skeezicks say the bunny gentleman heading for the hollow stump school and the Skeezicks to himself.

"I know what I'll do. I'll take a short cut, and I'll get to the school first. Then I'll hide and when Uncle Wiggily comes to walk home with the lady mouse teacher I'll grab him, and get as much as I can out of his ears as I want. Wow!"

So off through the woods sneaked the Skeez, and Uncle Wiggily, knowing nothing about this, kept on hopping among the trees on his way to the school.

"Dear me! I shall not be at school before it is over for the day," said Uncle Wiggily, looking at his watch. "But never mind, I can wait and walk home with the lady mouse teacher."

On and on went the bunny rabbit gentleman, but the Skeezicks were ahead of him. The bad chap reached the school first and he saw how still and quiet it was.

"Everybody must have gone home," whispered the Skeez to himself. "So much the better for me. There will be none of the animal boys or girls to play any tricks on me and stop me from having Uncle Wiggily's ears."

Clearer and clearer the Skeez went to the hollow stump school, and then he hid himself near outside under one of the windows.

"I'll just stay here until Uncle Wiggily comes along and then I'll jump out and grab him," said the Skeez. Now just about this time Jimmie went to the hollow stump school for he had finished washing off the blackboard with the big sponge, and he was going to help the teacher lock up the school for the day.

Jimie went to the hollow stump school, and then he hid himself near outside under one of the windows.

"I don't think any man has more reason to be grateful to Tanlac than I have, for it has made my wife a perfectly well woman and saved me hundreds of dollars in medicines and treatments besides," recently declared Arthur G. Hensley, a well-known and prosperous farmer of Villa Rica, Ga.

"My wife had suffered with a kind of asthma and also stomach trouble ever since she was a child," he continued, "and of late years she had got very much worse. The least breeze to the weather or even washing her hands in cold water would bring on such bad coughing spells that she would be deathly sick. She

"Does he?" whispered Jimmie, stopping over to the teacher. "Oh, he'd better not come here!"

"Why not?" asked the lady mouse in surprise.

"Because," quipped Jimmie in a whisper, "the bad old Skeezicks is waiting out under the window on the other side of our school. He's going to catch Uncle Wiggily. I'm almost sure!"

"Oh, how dreadful!" said the lady mouse. "How can we stop him. And if I call to Uncle Wiggily from the other window, the Skeez will hear me and it will be so much the worse! Oh, what shall I do?"

Jimie thought for a moment and then he said:

"Going over to the water pull the duck boy soaked and filled the big sponge with water. Then, carrying the dripping sponge to the window, under which the Skeez was hiding, Jimmie held the sponge out over the Skeez's head. Next Jimmie squeezed the sponge."

All at once a big shower of water dropped from the sponge and splashed down all over the Skeezicks.

"Oh, my! Oh, my! Oh, umbrellas and rubber coats!" howled the surprised chump. "It's raining! It's pouring! It's showering! Uncle Wiggily will never come today and I'll get wet through and catch the epidemic! I'd better run!"

And, never looking up to see Jimmie squeezing water on him from the blackboard sponge, away down the hill ran the Skeez, as fast as he could go, and he didn't get Uncle Wiggily at all. Aren't you glad?

"Jimie, you are a smart little boy," said the lady mouse.

And when the rabbit gentleman called to walk home with her, Longears said the same thing about the duck boy. So you see the weather didn't really need to rain to make a shower for Jimmie. And if the gold fish doesn't try to mail a letter in the match box, you can see the ice man to take it out with the fire shovel. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Lulu's lunch.—Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Everybody Is Tourist

When Seeking Border Permits at Chamber

What is a tourist? John Egan, assistant general manager of the El Paso chamber of commerce, who has to O. K. all one day border permits issued at the chamber of commerce, likes to know.

"Is a tourist a switchman on a street? Is he a cattle man from Arizona? Is he a visitor in the city? Or should those persons only who have long tickets and are stopping here on their way to somewhere else be classed as tourists?" Mr. Egan asked Tuesday. If anybody will enlighten Mr. Egan on the subject of just who is entitled to one day passes he says he will be greatly obliged.

Meanwhile he will have to do the best he can in the short time he has to do it. The long thirty line grows larger each day at the chamber of commerce.

EL PASO CHURCH RAISES ITS QUOTA IN ADVANCE

The Westminster Presbyterian church, Florence and Rio Grande, is the only El Paso church which is included in the organization of Southern Presbyterianism for that denomination's every member canvass, anticipated the canvass and on March 20 conducted its part of the work and subscribed the allotted budget more than they have ever subscribed before.

The nation wide canvass is part of the interchurch world movement. The goal set is $1,000,000, and it is already assured that the goal will be reached.

GEORGIA FARMER DID NOT EXPECT TO SEE HIS WIFE WELL AGAIN

She Had Suffered From Childhood — Health Broke Down And Nothing Seemed To Reach Her Trouble.

COULD HARDLY DO A THING FOR 5 YEARS

Now Restored To Splendid Health And Strength, Villa Rica Couple Say Tanlac Is Grandest Medicine On Earth.

"I don't think any man has more reason to be grateful to Tanlac than I have, for it has made my wife a perfectly well woman and saved me hundreds of dollars in medicines and treatments besides," recently declared Arthur G. Hensley, a well-known and prosperous farmer of Villa Rica, Ga.

"My wife had suffered with a kind of asthma and also stomach trouble ever since she was a child," he continued, "and of late years she had got very much worse. The least breeze to the weather or even washing her hands in cold water would bring on such bad coughing spells that she would be deathly sick. She Finally had a complete breakdown and for five years could do very little work of any kind. She tried all kinds of medicines and treatments without getting any benefit from them and I never expected to see her a well woman again.

"I had read the statements in the papers about Tanlac and was convinced it would do her good, so I got a bottle. When she saw what I had brought her she exclaimed: 'What! Another bottle of medicine. You're always making me take something or other and they never do me a bit of good.' However, she took it and when she had finished the first bottle she asked me to get her another.

"Well, sir, before she had finished the second bottle she was well and strong enough to do the family washing as well as the housework, and before she got through with the third she felt as well and energetic as that she quit taking any more. That was four years ago, and she hasn't needed doctors or medicines since. She eats well and digests her food without difficulty. She has gained considerably in weight and has been like a different woman ever since. After she had the 'flu' a short while ago she felt pretty weak, she took Tanlac again and it very soon built her up so that she is now as well as ever. It's no wonder that we both think Tanlac is the grandest medicine on earth."

Tanlac is sold in El Paso by Kelly & Pollard.—Adv.
